² Abbreviations used in the Table include “SG” (UN Secretary-General), “SRSG” (Special Representative of the Secretary-General), “USG” (Under-Secretary-General), and “ASG” (Assistant Secretary-General). The full names for UN peacekeeping operations for which acronyms are used in the table can be found in the “List of Key Abbreviations and Acronyms” on page xvi of the book.

³ Co-conveners are listed in alphabetical order and therefore the name of the primary convener may not appear first.
